

Ipswich Town FC The 1960s, from Ramsey to Robson

This is a must-have book of memories for both loyal fans and lovers of football history. You can take a trip back in time to a decade which saw Ipswich Town go from glory to heartbreak via the unrivalled picture archive of the East Anglian Daily Times. From Ramsey to Robson, the book presents a unique pictorial record of the rise, fall, and rise again of Ipswich Town Football Club. It is compiled by Terry Hunt, Editor of the East Anglian Daily Times newspaper. It spans the era from Alf Ramseys amazing League Championship triumph in 1961/62, to the beginning of the incredible Bobby Robson years in 1969. Included are hundreds of action pictures from the 1960s which have never before been published: photographs which will evoke memories of heroes and triumphs from the past. All the highs and lows are included in this unique new book - a real must for all tue fans of Ipswich Town Football Club.
