

Binding the Baroness (Cavern of Pleasure Book 3)

Ten thousand pounds if you will seduce the Baroness Debarlow. To save his estate of Chelton, Montague Edwards, a known rake, agrees to the Earl of Frothams proposition. The Earl intends his son, the Viscount Tremayne, to marry well, but the Viscount has fallen instead for the scandalous Lady Debarlow. To Abigail Debarlow, marrying the young Viscount is a means to avenging her mother's death. Her plans to elope with the Viscount, however, are upended by the handsome Montague Edwards. An accomplished seductress herself, she nonetheless finds herself at risk of succumbing to his advances. When Montague discovers that Lady Debarlow is a patron of Madame Botreaux's Cavern of Pleasures, he kidnaps the Baroness and takes her to Chelton with the intention of fulfilling her every fantasy. But he soon finds he wants to do more than bind her body... Failure to seduce the Baroness means he loses Chelton. But successfully seducing her may mean losing her altogether.
