

Love and Longing: A Collection of Classic Poetry and Prose

This heady collection features love poems and prose excerpts by writers including Sappho, Shakespeare, Milton, the Brontes, and Wordsworth. Works are loosely arranged according to chapter headings drawn from particular poems, for instance Love Is a Sickness (after Samuel Daniels poem), creating an engaging interchange of images and ideas, regardless of poet or era. As the title suggests, not every poem ends with a happily ever after; a Charlotte Mew poem reads, I so liked Spring last year/ Because you were here.../ This years a different thing,--/ Ill not think of you. ... A resonant sampling of both standards and lesser-known gems. Publishers WeeklyThe selection is brilliant, creating cross-currents, complications, and time travelling coincidences to challenge intelligent readers.
